While everything else is going up Tungsten Lamps are coming down. The quality is also better, they last longer and are less fragile.

While the service is bad and voltage often low, until the new plant starts, Tungstens will take less current, give more light and help us by reducing the load. Remember that these lamps consume only 1 1-4 Watts per candle.
The common lamp requires 3 1-2.

	New price	Old price
20 candle Tungsten lamp	.75	$1.00
32 candle Tungsten lamp	1.00	1.25

Death of Mrs. Graper.

Mrs. M. A. Graper died last night at the home of her daughter, Miss Louise Graper. Mrs. Graper came to Vinita from Morison Ill., about twenty years ago. During all that time she has been a cripple and confined to the house, as the result of injuries sustained in a fall a short time before she left Illinois. In recent years she has had several strokes. From the last one, about a month ago, she was not able to rally, on account of her advanced age though she showed remarkable vitality and made a hard fight for life.
She leaves a son and daughter, still living in Morison, besides the daughter here with whom she made her home. The sympathy of the community is extended to Miss Louise Graper and the brother and sister who share her loss. The funeral is to be at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Rev. R. J. Church will conduct the service, assisted by Rev. J. E. Pershing.

Contempt Proceedings Dismissed.

The contempt proceedings brought by Dr. Stolper against the county commissioners were dismissed yesterday afternoon by County Judge Frear, on a technicality in the papers. Dr. Stolper followed it with a petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the county commissioners to act in the matter of appointing a probation officer. After a hearing Judge Frear granted the writ.
The proceedings against the commissioners were in the name of Kate Barnard, state commissioner of charities and correction.

DR. CLINKSCALES FUNERAL ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The funeral services of the late Dr.
A. M. Clinkscates will be held at the house tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be in charge of Rev. R. J.
Church and Dr. L. C. Wolfe, a former pastor of the Baptist church here.

Mr. Church, who has been in attendance on the Baptist association at Enid, announced Dr. Clinkscates death to that body. While no formal action was taken, the sentiment was expressed on every side that the doctor's sudden death was a serious loss to the state and the denomination as well as to his family and town. Dr. Clinkscates was a deacon and trustee of the Baptist church of Vinita.

Last night the physicians of Vinita met and appointed Drs. Oliver Bagby, C. S. Neer and D. B. Stough a committee to draft appropriate resolutions.
The following were drawn up this morning and signed by every physician in the city:

"At a special meeting of the physicians of Vinita on November 18th, 1910, the following proceedings were had:

"Whereas, Dr. A. M. Clinkscates, a member of our profession, died in this city, November 17th, 1910, and recognizing the loss we have sustained by it;

"Resolved, That we take this occasion to formally express the deep regret we feel at this visitation of Providence in taking from us and this community one of its most active and useful members;

"That in him we have always found the embodiment of honor and integrity and a man whose universally affable and genial disposition has endeared him to all of us. We tender our heartfelt sympathy to the grief stricken family."

Entertain Bridge Club.

The Young Ladies Bridge Club was
